OUTLINES.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, yesterday, issued an order suppressing any further production of "The Clansman," and the theatre management has applied for an injunction to restrain the mayor's interference; the order was the result of an appeal by negroes with former Congressman Geo. H. White, colored, of North Carolina, as chief spokesman——In New York yesterday the grand jury dismissed as campaign gossip the charge of Leader Murphy, of Tammany, that Hearst's Independence League had tried to induce Tammanites to buy them off——President Roosevelt yesterday issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, November 29th, as a day of Thanksgiving——When Parliament met in London yesterday one hundred women suffragists created great excitement by breaking into the house and insisting on being heard; they jumped into chairs to harrangue the members and the police had to forcibly eject them, a number being sent to prison——Leader Murphy urges Tammany to loyally support Hearst and the executive committee of Tammany Hall has decided to work for the whole Democratic ticket——New York markets: Money on call firm, 3 1-4 to 5 1-2 per cent., ruling rate, 3 3-4, closing bid and offered at 3 1-2; spot cotton quiet 11.15; flour steady, with a moderate demand; wheat firm, No. 2 red, 79 1-8 elevator; corn steady, No. 2, 54 1-2 elevator; oats easy, mixed 38; turpentine quiet; rosin firm, strained common to good 4.20 to 4.30.

Good morning! Have you registered?

Some people are such poor artists that they can't even draw a conclusion.

Cold rain and freezing temperature in the southwest put up the price of cotton a quarter of a cent Monday. The weather furnishes Republican spellbinders with another argument.

A long time at the helm makes the Republican party vain and boastful. We may as well run it on the rocks and the railroads read their papers they pilot that can steer the ship of State.

To a man up a tree it looks as if some recent decisions of Federal Courts in cases for rebating are not "on all fours," as the lawyers say, with President Roosevelt's ruling in the Paul Morton exoneration.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, is camping on Uncle Joe's trail in his Illinois district. About all he may expect to do is to cut down Uncle Joe's majority in order to let him know that he can't empty the slop jar on labor and rub it in.

In a love story occurs this sentence: "Then came the cherry voice of the telephone girl." Guess the writer meant cheery but the linotype made it "cherry." However, the linotype can stick to "cherry," for we've also heard the voice of a peach coming from the central station.

A man died in West Virginia a few days ago and had not a friend who would put his hands on him to bury him, so his body was cremated where it laid. If the dead man hadn't been known to be the poor Syrian leper, one would have jumped at the conclusion that it was the spurned remains of a monopolist.

In this morning's Star is published President Roosevelt's proclamation setting apart Thursday, November 29th, as a day of thanksgiving and praise for our "abounding material prosperity." As the President nowhere in his proclamation gives the credit to the G. O. P., Uncle Joe and Secretary Shaw ought to revise their political speeches to correspond with the more serious and correct proclamation of the nation's Chief Executive.

Upon investigating the national insane asylum at Havana, Gov. Magoon found a deplorable state of affairs. The Cuban Congress made an appropriation to enlarge the asylum but the money was never expended for that purpose. Then again "the management saved $5,000 from the food account." No doubt Magoon was thoroughly digusted to find that the Cubans are acting just as if they were Republicans in the United States.

TO HALF A MILLION

Murchison National Bank Increases Its Capital Stock from $300,000 to $500,000.

STOCKHOLDERS IN SESSION

At Special Meeting Yesterday Plan as Recommended by Directors Was Unanimously Adopted—Disposition of New Stock.

The stockholders of the Murchison National Bank in special called meeting in this city yesterday morning at 11 o'clock decided unanimously to accept the recommendation of the Board of Directors made some time ago that the capital stock of the institution be increased from $300,000 to $500,000. A plan was submitted for carrying this increase into effect according to the idea of the Directors and as soon as this plan matures the Murchison will be one of the largest banks in the State.

The meeting yesterday was held in the handsome banking house of the institution in this city and 2,755 of the 3,000 shares of stock were represented either in person or by proxy. The plan as submitted by the Directors was fully gone over and discussed by the stockholders in attendance and all were apparently convinced of the soundness and desirability of the proposition, which will place the bank in much better position than ever before to handle its large and constantly growing business. The plan, authority for the same and all other information in connection with the change is embodied in the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by the stockholders:

"Resolved, That under the provisions of the act of May 1st, 1886, the capital stock of this association be increased in the sum of not exceeding $200,000, making the total capital not more than $500,000.

"Resolved, That the officers of the association be directed to offer $150,000 of the new stock to all the present stockholders ratably at $100 per share to be accepted by November 15th, 1906, and paid for by December 1st, 1906.

"Resolved further, that any stock not so accepted by the present stockholders, by the 15th of November, may be disposed of by the officers of the association at $150 a share not later than December 1st, 1906.

"Resolved further, that present stockholders waive their right to $50,000 of the new stock, placing the same in the hands of the officers of the association for sale by December 1st, at $150 a share, preference to be given new interests."

The meeting yesterday was very enthusiastic and the affairs of the bank were found to be in every way most satisfactory. The officers and the people of Wilmington generally have every reason to feel proud of the splendid showing of the excellent institution.

The Murchison Bank was organized in 1899 with a capital stock of $200,000. In 1902 this was increased to $300,000. By the change a very large amount of new business was secured. In the opinion of the Directors the increase authorized yesterday will again result in adding largely to the business and profit of the bank. Since organization it has paid $100,000 in dividends and accumulated a surplus of about $200,000. Its deposits are larger than any single bank in North Carolina. After the increase voted yesterday, the capital and surplus will also be larger than any bank in the State.

The Dixie Cafe to Re-Open.

It is understood that arrangements have been made by which Mr. E. P. Dudley will in a few days re-open the Dixie Cafe, temporarily at least. The arrangements have been on foot for several days and were consummated yesterday. Mr. A. A. Hergenrother, senior member of the firm, will not re-engage in the business, but will devote his time to some other enterprise.

ALL DAY OF SERVICE

Eighty-five Business Places Including a Number of Saloons Will Close One Hour at Request of Evangelist Hamilton.

The prompt and cordial recognition given by the merchants of the city to the great noon-day meeting for men at the First Baptist church to-day indicates the brightest outlook for the services. Eighty-five merchants have consented to close their stores from 12 to 1 o'clock thereby giving those in their employ an opportunity to hear the evangelist's sermon to men. The meeting has been mapped out along practical lines and those attending are expected to go in their business suits and working clothes. The meeting is not for dress parade.

The all-day prayer-meeting planned for to-day will open at 6 A. M. with services by a leading business man. At 1 o'clock a meeting conducted by Dr. Hale will be held. Dr. Hamilton will have charge of the noon-day service and will preach again at 7:30 P. M. At 4 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Wakefield will conduct a meeting which has been arranged especially for the young, though all others will be welcomed.

Owing to an engagement in Henderson, Kentucky, Mr. Wakefield is forced to leave Wilmington to-night. His departure will be regretted by thousands who have listened to his singing. He will open a series of meetings in Henderson on Sunday.

Dr. Hamilton's sermon last night on "Repentanse" was a clear, forceful and logical talk on that cardinal doctrine which was the burden of the Apostles' teaching. At the conclusion of the sermon a number went forward and asked for membership in the crurch. Others requested the prayers of God's people.

The list of the firms to close to-day during the noon-day services includes a number of offices and four or five prominent down-town saloons.

WERE MARRIED SUNDAY.

Young People Entertained at Pretty Reception Last Evening.

Mr. W. A. Simon and his bride, nee Miss Annie B. Sikes, were given a delightful reception last night at the home of the groom's step-father, Mr. R. B. Moore, Fifth and Dawson streets. A large number of their young friends were present and quite a valuable collection of presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Simon surprised their freinds with the announcement of their wedding which took place last Sunday night at the home of the bride's father, Mr. R. J. Sikes, No. 11 Meares street, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, officiating. It was a very pretty ceremony, the groom being attended by his friend, Mr. Carl Whitehead as best man and the groom being attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Mollie E. Sikes. The reception last evening was the first opportunity many friends had of extending their felicitations and the young couple were showered with good wishes and kind expressions. An elegant spread of refreshments was a feature of the evening and all who attended were delighted.

WEEK OF POPULAR PRICES.

Mr. Robert A. Mansfield and Company Open Their Engagement.

Mr. Robert A. Mansfield and Company of select players opened an engagement of a week at popular prices at the Academy of Music last night and a large audience was well pleased with the initial offering "The Lion and The Lamb." The cast is exceptionally well balanced, the costuming and scenery is good and the company seems to be in every way the peer of any similar organization that has played at the Academy recently. A number of interesting and very pleasing specialties were introduced during the evening.

This afternoon a prize matinee will be offered especially for the benefit of ladies and children when the bill will be "Honor's Reward."

To-night "The New Bishop" will be presented and a new line of specialties will be put on. Prices for the matinee are 10 and 30 cents. For the night engagement 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Died at Phoenix, N. C.

Mr. Edgar S. Chinnis, a well known young man of Phoenix, Brunswick county, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chinnis of that place, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, aged 23 years and 23 days. The remains will be laid to rest with funeral at the family burying ground this morning at 11 o'clock. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

LAY CORNER-STONE

Imposing Ceremonies By Improved Order of Red Men in Wilmington To-day.

HANDSOME NEW WIGWAM

Exercises Will Take Place at Building on North Front Street—Address by Past Great Incohonee Donnelly, of Philadelphia.

Imposing ceremonies this afternoon at 4 o'clock will mark the laying of the corner-stone of the handsome new wigwam which the Improved Order of Red Men in Wilmington is erecting at a cost of something over $10,000 at No. 414 North Front street. The exercises will take place, weather permitting, in the open air at the scene of construction and will be preceded by a parade of the warriors, braves and chiefs from their present hunting grounds on South Front street. The principal feature of the exercises aside from the ceremonial of laying the corner-stone itself by the Great Chiefs of the Great Council of North Carolina, many of whom have already arrived, will be an address by the Past Great Incohonee, the Hon. Thos. K. Donnalley, of Philadelphia, who will be heard with infinite pleasure not only by the large number of Red Men, but by the general public, who are cordially invited to attend. Mr. Donnalley instituted Eyota Tribe No. 5, in this city, fifteen years ago and is no stranger to the older members of the order in this city. He is a pleasant speaker and is well versed in the craft. For many years he was custodian of the secret work of the order and is without a doubt the most prominent Red Man in the country to-day, eminently well qualified to speak upon any I. O. R. M. occasion in the United States.

The exercises will be under the auspices of Eyota, Cherokee, and Laxipolka tribes of this city, while a special guest of the tribes for the occasion will be Watcoosa Tribe, of Southport and Fort Caswell, which will arrive to-day in a body to attend the ceremonies and take part in the parade. With Watcoosa Tribe will be the Post Artillery Band, of Fort Caswell, which will furnish the instrumental music for the occasion. In addition to the band there will also be music by the Acme Male Quartette, composed of W. R. Dosher, first tenor; A. L. Dosher, second tenor; W. A. McGirt, first bass, and W. B. Muse, second bass, and J. W. Fleet, first tenor. The Fort Caswell Band is led by Sergeant E. Johnson and is a very fine organization.

Hon. Thos. K. Donnalley, of Philadelphia, and Great Prophet F. M. Hodges, of Greenville, N. C., arrived on the evening train yesterday from the North and were met by the reception committee composed of Col. Walker Taylor, Mr. H. McL. Green and Mr. E. P. H. Strunck. They are being entertained at The Orton with other members of the Great Council of the State, who arrived on the late trains last night. Others will arrive to-day on the morning and noon trains. Mr. E. P. H. Strunck, of this city, is the Great Keeper of Wampum of the Great Council and as such will take part in the exercises to-day.

A very handsome souvenir programme in colors with Red Men designs in catchy arrangement has been issued for the exercises from the Review printery by those past masters of the art, Messrs. C. C. Redd and H. L. Hewett, and from it is gleaned the following order of ceremony:

Overture, "Star of Hope," Mackie Beyer—Fort Caswell Military Band, Sergt. E. Johnson, leader.

Doxology, J. A. Parks—

The Acme Male Quartette—W. R. Dosher, First Tenor; A. L. Dosher, Second Tenor; W. A. McGirt, First Bass; W. B. Muse, Second Bass. J. W. Fleet, Accompanist.

Prayer—Rev. A. McCullen.

"Silver Heels," (Characteristic,) Neil Moret—Fort Caswell Military Band.

The City's Welcome—Mayor A. M. Waddell.

"Until the Dawn," J. A. Parks—The Acme Male Quartette.

Laying of the Cornerstone by Great Chiefs of the Great Council of North Carolina:

JAS. F. MALLETT DEAD

Died Rather Suddenly in New York, Following an Operation for Appendicitis—Native of Wilmington—Funeral.

Mrs. Gabriel Holmes, of this city, yesterday morning received a telegram bearing the sad tidings of the death of her brother, Mr. James Fleeming Mallett, which occurred at his home in New York Monday night. Mr. Mallet went to a hospital in New York Saturday for an operation for appendicitis and it was thought at first that the operation was a success, but there came a sudden change for the worse in his condition and he passed away quickly. The news of his death was received with much sadness by many friends in Wilmington.

Mr. Mallett was the son of Col. Peter Mallett and his wife, Annabelle Gibbs, and was born in this city about fifty years ago, on the old Gibbs' lot, on Fourth street, where the High School now stands. He went to New York when a young man and for many years past had been with the New York Dock Company, in charge of its extensive cotton warehouses. He was a man of high character, of splendid business ability, strictly attentive to his business duties and was greatly esteemed by the officers of the company in whose employ he was. About ten years ago he married Miss Lyra Beach, of Columbus, Ga. He was a lovable man, devoted to his wife and family and respected and esteemed by all who knew him. His remains will reach here this evening from New York over the Atlantic Coast Line and the funeral will be from St. James' church to-morrow morning at an hour to be announced hereafter. The bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in this city.

FAYETTEVILLE ENTERPRISE.

Sheriff Frank H. Stedman at Head of Cumberland Savings Bank.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following:

On last evening the subscribers to the capital stock of the Cumberland Savings and Trust Company met in the Hotel LaFayette parlor and perfected their organization. The following officers and directors were chosen:

Frank H. Stedman, President.

Jas. F. Post, First Vice-President.

Dr. J. Vance McGougan, Second Vice-President.

Directors—Frank H. Stedman, A. S. Williams, Jas. F. Post, J. F. Harrison, L. A. Williamson, B. T. McBryde, H. R. Horne, W. E. Kindley, H. Lutterloh, W. D. McNeill, J. F. L. Armfield, W. F. Blount, A. E. Rankin, M. McI. Matthews, Dr. J. Vance McGougan. The company will start business on November 1st.

Sheriff Frank H. Stedman, who is now erecting a residence here and will make Fayetteville his home, and who is already intimately associated with Fayetteville's progress, a few months ago decided to organize a Banking and Trust Company for the purpose of conducting a savings bank and trust business, and the above is the result of his effort. The stock was greatly over-subscribed for.

SOME MORE VAGRANTS.

Several Will Do Time on the Roads. Other Cases.

Vagrants were the star defendants in the police court yesterday and upon this occasion several of them received terms on the roads and farm. Rachel Smith and Kate Fisher each received 30 days for having no legitimate employment and the Fisher woman was given an additional 30 for being drunk and disorderly. James Smith admitted that he was not working, but substantiated a claim that he was sick. He was ordered sent to the hospital. Joe Cossie, an indolent white man, could give no account of his means of a livelihood and he was sent out for thirty days. Riley Fennell proved that he had employment at the Cape Fear mill and he escaped with the advice that he would do well to work regularly in the future. John DeBois, driver of the water wagon, showed that he had waxed profane on the streets only upon dire provocation with a pair of very refractory mules. The Mayor appreciated the position of the driver and he was let off with $5 including the cost. Kate Smith, the woman with the split lip who was gunning for her daughter the night before when arrested by Officer Tatum, was fined $5 and costs.

—Mr. T. C. Clute, of Clinton, was a guest at The Orton last evening.

NO JURY EXEMPTIONS

Supreme Court Delivers Knock-out Blow to Immunity from Service in Wilmington.

THE DECISION ON YESTERDAY

Case of tate Against Cantwell is Affirmed—Many Citizens Are Affected—Other News and Notes From tate Captal.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 23.—In the appeal of State vs. Cantwell, from Wilmington, the Supreme Court rendered an opinion this evening which has the effect of putting an end to the contentions made in a number of North Carolina towns that where a special act of the Legislature provided for the exemption of a man from jury and military service for life for active service as members of volunteer fire departments of towns for five years, a subsequent Legislature could not repeal the act in such a way as to compel the citizen, who had served five years as a fireman, to do jury or military service.

In the case at bar Mr. R. C. Cantwell was fined ten dollars for his refusal to serve as a juror in the Superior court because he was a member of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company, chartered in 1869 by the Legislature with a clause that members serving five years should be exempt from jury and military service for life. The last Legislature repealed all such acts. The Supreme court now holds that the act of 1869 was not a contract with the State and exemptions from jury duty were never considered as contracts by which the Legislature could sell or give the right of a State to the service of her citizens for public and governmental duties, but they are merely privileges, revocable by subsequent Legislatures.

Opinions were rendered in ten cases and six others were disposed of per curiam and three dismissed under Rule 17. The notable ones are: Lumber Company vs. Cedar Co., from Dare, reversed; Hatcher vs. Faison, Duplin, affirmed; Dewey vs. Railroad, Wayne, affirmed; McCoy vs. Railroad, Brunswick, error; Yarborough vs. Banking Company, Cumberland, affirmed; Ledbetter vs. Cotton Seed Company, Richmond, affirmed.

It is estimated that between five hundred and a thousand Wilmington citizens, who have served either in the military or in the old volunteer fire department of the city, are affected by the decision of the Supreme court in the case above mentioned. The action of the last Legislature in repealing all these exemptions was met with a perfect storm of protests at the time and the volunteer firemen of the several companies held a mass meeting and raised a fund to fight the constitutionality of the act of the Legislature repealing the exemptions with the result that a test case was made up with Mr. Cantwell as a defendant. It went before the Superior court and Mr. Cantwell was fined by agreement for refusing to serve. By this means the test case was made up and an appeal was taken to the Supreme court. It has now been decided that the act of the Legislature repealing the exemption of firemen as well as all other exemptions is perfectly constitutional and that those who have heretofore enjoyed immunity from jury duty will have to serve. The decision of the Supreme court will be received with some surprise and great disappointment by the large number of citizens affected.

PRISONERS FROM ONSLOW.

Six Convicts for New Hanover Roads. One for Pen.

Sheriff W. C. Mills and Deputies Eli Shriver and A. T. Redd, of Onslow county, arrived in the city yesterday with seven prisoners sentenced at last week's term of Onslow Superior Court by Judge E. B. Jones. Six of the number, including three that were concerned in the cutting of young Lee Kellum, will serve terms on the New Hanover roads and the seventh John Gray, colored, was taken on to Raleigh last night to serve eight years in the penitentiary for attempted criminal assault. William Odam and Anderson Bryant received 18 months each for asaulting Mr. Kellum and Alex Bryant, who participated in the same assault received 16 months. The prisoners for the New Hanover roads were taken out yesterday afternoon by Foreman Hocutt.

NO VANDALISM IN FAYETTEVILLE

The patriotic women of Fayetteville do not propose to look on and permit the men of Fayetteville to lend themselves to a rank piece of vandalism. Right in the middle of the square where Hay, Person, Green and Gillespie streets intersect, stands the quaint old Fayetteville market house, a historic building itself, but on still more historic ground. Fayetteville is to have a new government postoffice building and some man or men(they are generally vandals) proposed that the city sell the market house property and permit the market house to be ruthlessly torn down by the Federal government and a postoffice building erected in its stead. Such a shocking proposition naturally stirred up the splendid womanhood of old Fayetteville and they followed the true American plan of holding a meeting to express their sentiments. Their meeting was earnest and well attended and a Fayetteville correspondent gives this account of it:

"One of the most striking and impressive meetings ever held in Fayetteville was that yesterday afternoon in the city hall, which was packed by the women of Fayetteville, prominent in society, in chuch work and in every way representative of the homes and hearthstones of the city. This great demonstration, which was presided over by Mr. J. H. Myrover, with Mr. Charles G. Rose acting as secretary, was brought about by the proposition to sell the old market house to the Federal government for a public building. In this meeting a petition was started to the mayor and board of aldermen in protest against it and during the meeting speeches were made by Maj. E. J. Hale, Maj. B. R. Huske, Rev. I. W. Hughes and others, showing that this historic building was erected on the foundations of the historic structures in which the Federal constitution was ratified by North Carolina in 1789, and that around the building clusters some of the most cherished associations of the town. The Fayetteville women did not propose to retain the old building in dilapidation, but pledged themselves to improve and beautify it and to this end, before adjourning, a "Civic Improvement Association" was organized."

The ladies of Fayetteville are right, as women generally are. There is too much of the reckless spirit to tear down places with venerable and affectionate associations attacked to them. Every town should have some ancient and historic landmark to point out, but in many instances so called modern progress has obliterated them in many towns. In Wilmington several years ago our people permitted the historic mansion of Cornelius Harnett to be town down to make way for a saw mill, whereas the saw mill could have been erected without interfering with the Harnett house—a handsome colonial building with piazzas, window casings, and staircases of native red cedar.

THREE MEN OVERTURNED A GOVERNMENT.

The Charleston News and Courier makes this reference to our intervention in Cuba:

"Discussion of the Washington Government's treatment of the Cuban question has passed to the academic stage, but we cannot refrain from commenting on the truly diverting diplomacy of the State Department as revealed in the publication of the Steinhardt-Bacon correspondence by Secretary Root.

"The correspondence makes clear in the first place that the representative of the American Government, Consul-General Steinhardt, was in sympathy, as he should have been, with the Government of Cuba and that his confidence in President Palma was unshaken when he wrote on September 10 that Palma had applied public funds to "public works and public education" instead of to "the purchase of war material." "Mr. Steinhardt clearly saw that President Palma had merely underestimated the disorderly element of the Cuban pdpulation.

"It is equally clear that on September 8 President Palmo innocently leaped to the conclusion that the United States would, if it intervened at all under the Platt Amendment, intervene to put down riot and rebellion against the Government. It did not enter into the old gentleman's head that the United States would await a physical demonstration that his Government was unstable. He was foolish enough to imagine that Mr. Roosevelt would accept his word that American arms and men were needed to suppress disorder. He fancied that the United States actually sympathized with the representatives of Government and not with those of anarchy in Cuba, that the United States sincerely desired the experiment of independent government to prove practicable and so he imagined that in the stress of the situation he would have the aid of troops and ships with which to teach the rebels a stern lesson that stable government would be given a chance in Cuba."

However, our friend Palma dropped his dough. The President of the United States sent down two men who went down to Cuba, "went behind the returns," overturned a defacto government if not a de jure government, and set up another. The matter was not referred back to the American Congress, but three men—Roosevelt, Taft and Bacon—assumed power to do in Cuba what they haven't power to do in their own country.

YEAR OF DISASTERS.

The Baltimore Sun calls attention to some of the frightful disasters that have visited this old earth this year. Says our esteemed contemporary:

"The great storm which has prevailed within the last week along the Florida coast and in the West Indies adds another to the long list of furious elemental upheavals which have distinguished this present year and will make it memorable. In the late storm hundreds have lost their lives and much property has been destroyed and the extent of the devastation is not yet accurately known. The erution of Mount Vesuvius caused a great destruction of property, but the San Francisco earthquake in the spring was the most destructive of the disasters as far as the loss of property goes, and it takes rank in that regard with the worst that ever happened. But in the loss of human life it was insignificant compared with the typhoon a few weeks ago which wrecked Hongkong and destroyed thousands of lives. In the Phillippines also there was great destruction wrought by a typhoon. In San Salvador a furious hurricane raged for 10 days. Then the violent storm along the Gulf Coast and in the tier of States bordering on the Gulf of Mexico caused enormous destruction to crops, to railroads and to shipping and some loss of life. The earthquake in Chile and the destruction of portions of Valparaiso and Santiago was an appalling disaster. All through the summer and down to the present time, with a short dry period in September, the rainfall has been phenomenal and there have been many local floods. And in its destruction of crops and the consequent loss of property the heavy frosts early in this month may be regarded as one of the disasters of a most disastrous year."

The above is only a partial list of the horrors which have occurred this year. No account is taken of the numerous awful railroad wrecks and other appalling disasters which it is difficult to recall in hurriedly attempting to write of the calamities which the inhabitants of this sphere have endured. The old earth appears to be full of dangers. Yet the people of the world go along in their frivolity. The world wags along, as the old saying goes, but what happens to it almost daily is enough to appall its inhabitants.

WRECKED MEN ARE MADE NEW

What Keeley Treatment Does for Victims of Whiskey Disease—Words Form Former Slave of Drink Fifteen Years.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Some three years since I was treated at the Keeley Institute in Greensboro, N. C., for the whiskey drinking habit, and was cured, after a continuous habit of drinking for fifteen years. I can say that I am to-day a sober man and I would advise any man who is given to drinking, or using drugs, to place himself under treatment at the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, where he will receive the best attention and the kindest treatment.

I can safely say that the officers and physicians are gentlemen of good repute, and will treat all men under their care right. I speak this of my own knowledge. I was a wreck when I went there; but when I left I was a sober man, in good health, and am just the same today, and hope to remain so.

I give here my reasons why a man should take the Keeley Treatment:

First. Because the habit, once acquired, of drinking to excess leaves a man with no other cure.

Second. Whiskey shatters the brain, ruins the health, and makes a total wreck of both body and mind.

Third. It takes a man's money, and causes his children to want the necessaries of life. It causes a loss of friends and leaves a man worthless, and worst of all, it will drag him down to a drunkard's grave, and send his soul to hell after death. So I hope some poor sufferer may be benefited by these lines and go and be cured.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Mr. Roosevelt is going to make merely a Poultney Bigelow stay on the Isthmus of Panama.—Baltimore Sun.

—Some of the politcal prophets will soon have to hunt hiding places; they cannot all be right.—Philadelphia Press.

—Under the pure-food law all ingredients of a package must be printed plainly on the label. That's one way to abolish hash.—Washington Post.

—These baseball reporters, too, are expected to have a new language ready to replace this season's idioms when the season opens next year.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—Secretary Taft may not have to go to Ohio to aid the Republican ticket. Mr. Bryan is going to make a number of speeches there in the closing days of the campaign.—Washington Post.

—Senator Tillman surely is in great demand, and incidentally in great financial good fortune, in being so much in demand as a lecturer. He was recently invited to Atlanta, but could not accept, because, according to The Georgian, his time will be fully occupied until the Senate meets and after its adjournment for many weeks. If one took certain invariable and quite frequent home criticisms of the Senator as representative of home public sentiment, one would most forcibly be impressed with the truth of the proverb—a prophet is not without honor save in his country, or words to that effect.—Columbia Record.

—It took a long time to get one of the gray wolves of the United States Senate behind the bars. Sometimes the statute of limitations would save them. Sometimes the juggling of conscienceless pleaders. Sometimes the intervention of corrupt jurors. Sometimes death. But at last the penal statutes have tripped the heels of one of the less serious offenders. A great State stands shamed in the person of its chosen representative; but as long as Senator Burton's case is remembered high-placed plunderers will be held in greater restraint and in greater contempt; and honest people will sleep safer in their beds.—Philadelphia Record.

—No romance is of keener interest than the story of the development of the mining industry in Alaska during the past decade. It is attested roughly by the increase in the value of its annual output from $2,400,000, in 1895, to over $15,000,000 in 1905. The gold production of 1905, according to a report of the United States Geological Survey, increased probably 60 per cent over 1904. "An important factor in the advancement of Alaska's mineral industry during the last decade," says the report, "is the great reduction in mining costs which has taken place during this period. The pioneer miners of the Yudkon could not afford to handle gravel averaging less than $10 or $15 to the cubic yard. In the same district good wages can now be made, even by crude methods, in extracting gold from a pay streak averaging less than $5 to the cubic yard.—Washington Post.

Howell—Did that fellow who wanted you to invest have a sure thing, as he claimed? Powell—Yes; I was it.—Judge.

"Ignorance of the law," said the judge, "excusses no one." "That being the case," rejoined the prisoner, "it's a wonder the jury didn't find my lawyer guilty."—Chicago Daily News.

"Slowboy is about discouraged. He's been waiting ten years for a promotion and hasn't got it yet." "That's the trouble. If he'd worked more and waited less hed have had it long ago."

"Our imitation is really considerably better than the real thing." "You don't say! Then hadn't we better begin cautioning the public to beware of the genuine?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

She—Were you ever in a street car accident? He—Yes. The car was completely wrecked, but the passengers were packed so tight that only the outside layers were injured.—Chicago News.

Dashaway—I want you to meet Miss Hopper. Stunning girl. Just back from Europe. Cleverton—Her first visit? "Yes." "Well, old man, if it's all the same to you I'll wait until she's gotten through telling about it."—Life.

FARMERS' CONGRESS IN SESSION

Movement for Co-operation to Fix the Price of Their Products.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 22.—The Farmers Co-operative Business Congress, with a large attendance of delegates from the Western and Southern States met here today. C. W. Peckham, of Haven, Kas., president of the Farmers' Elevator Association, of Kansas, speaking of the Congress, said:

"Our purpose in calling this kind of a meeting is to more closely unite the agricultural interests of the West and South. It is not our intention to organize a trust of the farmers. It has been said that we purpose to increase the price of wheat to a stated amount. This we intend to do, but not by organizing and demanding that the consumers pay that for our produce. If we can sell our products to the South ern associations at a higher price than we received from the middle men and can enable the Southern producers to hold their produce, we will work out a plan whereby the price of farm products will naturally work higher."

C. S. Barrett, of Atwater, Ga., president of the National Farmers' Union, in an address said:

"In the South we have raised the price of cotton to 11 cents. We have built warehouses and hold our cotton till the price is right. We gin our own cotton and have cotton mills, woolen mills, and ginneries, all owned by the farmers. The farmers of the North can do the same with their crops."

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

There's no use getting mad if that for sale sign you stuck on the front of your vacant house has not brought you a tenant or purchaser. Your sign has been read and reread by practically the same people, who pass by it every day and who are too intent on other things to stop and look over the property. Now, if you would advertise in the Business Locals of the Morning Star it would come before the eyes of all the people looking for real estate. This is because they are accustomed to have the Morning Star tell them what property in Wilmington may be had.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Mr. J. R. Goodwin, the engineer of the American Bridge Company, of Pittsburg and his assistant, Mr. I. J. Baldwin, have arrived in Fayetteville for the purpose of commencing the construction of the new bridge for the Wilson Short Cut division of the A. C. L., over the Cape Fear River, about two miles of Fayetteville, to replace the present structure, which had been condemned as unsafe. As soon as they can secure quarters for them, forty skilled workmen will be sent to Fayetteville from Pittsburg.

—Webster special, Oct. 22: Jasper J. Buchanan died last Monday morning at 3:40 from a gunshot wound at the hands of his son J. Burton Buchanan. Mr. Buchanan was fifty-nine years old and leaves a wife and four children, two children in the West. This is the result of an old feud caused over the settlement of land and has been brewing for at least six years. J. Burton Buchanan is about 28 years old and was known by all as an honest, moral boy, never known to be in rowdy company, strictly sober and industrious. He is at large.

Newbern special, Oct. 22: The revival meetings at the Centenary Methodist church which are being conducted by Miss Emma L. Tucker have developed much interest especially among the women who have been aroused by her earnest consecrated appeals for higher living. While many converts have been gained during the meetings probably the most marked progress is in the beginning of more Bible research and therefore better understanding of the Scriptures. The lady herself is one of the best Bible students who has ever been here and her lessons on the Bible are attended by many.

—Spencer special, Oct. 22: The first detachment of strike-breakers were distributed over the Southern Railway system to-day. Two car loads reached Spencer this morning and promptly began work. Three additional car loads were carried to Atlanta and other points South. The machinists were secured in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York and have been in readiness for ten days. All of the men are being housed and boarded in the shop building where commodious commissary departments have been fitted up. Another detachment of nearly one thousand machinists are expected to be distributed over the system within the week. Negotiation for a settlement of the strike by arbitration have been declared off.

—Kinston special, Oct. 22: At his home in Vance township Saturday Mr. J. W. McCleary's three-year-old son was bitten on the leg by a white oak snake and it immediately became swollen and very painful. He was brought to the city and Dr. James M. Parrott administered the best specific, ammonia, both internally and on the affected part and it is hoped to save the little fellow's life. He was taken to the city hospital for further treatment. The child was playing in the house and in short dresses its bare legs furnished an easy point of attack and the fangs of the deadly snake fastened themselves in the soft flesh, deep. The white oak snake, known to naturalists as the poison adder, is one of the three deadly poisonous snakes of this section and is dreaded as much if not more than the other two, the rattler and copper belly moccasin.

—Goldsboro special, Oct. 22: Bob Parker, a well known young white man of this city is in serious trouble at Warsaw, where he has been working for some weeks past. It seems that Parker and Jesse Powell and another man named Smith were together, and Powell and Smith had some words, whereupon Powell drew his gun and was about to shoot Smith, when Parker stepped between them, and in attempting to disarm him the pistol was discharged, the ball lodging in Powell's face and breaking the jaw bone. Another report has it that Parker had succeeded in getting the pistol away from Powell, and the latter was advancing upon him with a knife when Parker shot. Be this as it may, Parker was given a preliminary hearing and in default of $200 bond was placed in Kenansville jail until next term of court. The trouble occurred in Parker's room Tuesday night, and it is said all the parties were drinking.

—Raleigh News and Observer: The Executive Committee of the University of North Carolina held a meeting at the Governor's Office yesterday. In the absence of the Governor Col. Thomas S. Kenan presided. Those present were: Col. A. B. Andrews, Hon. Richard H. Battle, Dr. R. H. Lewis, Col. T. S. Kenan and Mr. Josephus Daniels. President Venable reported that the enrollment for the present session was 710, the high water mark of attendance in the history of the University and within the past few weeks a number of new students have been enrolled. The bids for the handsome $50,000 Library Building will be opened on Thursday of this week, and it is expected that as soon as the contract is awarded the preparatory work will commence so that the building will be ready for use at the beginning of the fall session of 1907. It is greatly needed and work will be pushed so the students next year may be able to use it. President Venable says that work is going on steadily on the new residence for the president, which is in course of construction.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Oct. 23: A burglar was found in the home of Mr. F. J. Holloway on Newbern avenue Sunday morning about 3:30 o'clock. He was in one of the upper rooms and when found out darted down the stairway and out at the door before he could be caught or recognized. Saturday night the front door was locked as usual when the family retired. Late in the night a lady sleeping in an upper room waked and found her door open. She went to close the door and felt a draught of air. She looked down the stairway and saw the front door standing open. She was frightened and went into the room where Misses Edna and Jessie Holloway were sleeping and waked them up. Miss Edna went into the hall and as she did so a man, half bent, darted by her and down the stairway out at the door.

—Wadesboro special, Oct. 22: At the late term of the Superior court for this county Mr. G. C. Morgan recovered a verdict for $100 damages against Dr. H. D. Stewart, superintendent of health for Union county. Last winter Dr. Stewart visited a school near Waxhaw, Union county, which was being taught by Mr. Morgan, for the purpose of vaccinating the pupils. Mr. Morgan stated to the physician that the parents of the children had instructed him not to allow them to be vaccinated and that he (Mr. Morgan) would not permit them to be vaccinated unless the consent of the parents was first obtained. Dr. Stewart then left the school and subsequently had Mr. Morgan arrested for refusing to be vaccinated himself and refusing to allow the children to be vaccinated. The case was tried before 'Squire M. L. Flow in Monroe and dismissed, after which Mr. Morgan brought suit in this county for damages.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Oct 23: Dr. Thomas Palmer Jerman, venerable father of Mr. B. S. Jerman, cashier of the Commercial and Farmers Bank, and Mr. T. P. Jerman, of the Royall and Borden Company, of Raleigh, died at the home of Mr. B. S. Jerman in Raleigh at ten minutes after five o'clock on Sunday morning. The remains were carried to his home at Ridgeway yesterday morning by his two sons and by his daughter, Mrs. Carrie Dargan. Mr. Jerman Williams, his grandson, having gone to Ridgeway on Sunday. Dr. Jerman was in his 81st year and had been in very feeble health for several years past and his death, on account of a recent operation which had greatly weakened him, was not unexpected. The funeral was held at Ridgeway where the remains were buried beside those of his wife, nee Sydnor, who predeceased him by thirteen years.

—Asheville special, Oct. 22: The joint campaign now on in Buncombe between candidates for the Legislature is accruing to the benefit of the Democratic party. Colonel Lusk, the Republican candidate for the State Senate, is receiving unmerciful poundings at the hands of Charles A. Webb, his Democratic opponent, and Zebulon Weaver, candidate for the House on the Democratic ticket, and it is declared in certain well informed circles that if he could do so the Colonel would quit the game. Mr. Webb and Mr. Weaver are showing up Colonel Lusk's record in the Legislature in 1897 in such a manner as to practically put the Republicans out of commission in this county for years to come. There is no longer any doubt but that the Democratic party will win at the polls in Buncombe this year by increased majorities. The Republicans continue to scrap among themselves and as a result of this lack of harmony the only organ the party had, the Asheville Register, a weekly —has been knocked in the head and remains buried in some back yard.

ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE F AMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.
To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:

Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1½ miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Springs Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

The parade this afternoon will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock and will be headed by the mounted police and a cordon of officers on foot, all of them members of the order. Then will follow the Band and the tribes of Red Men in the following order: Watcoosa Laxipolka, Eyota, Cherokee; the Permanent Building Committee; the Corner Stone Committee; the Great Chiefs and the orator and distinguished guests, all in carriages, followed by the apparatus of the Wilmington Fire Department.

After the exercises this afternoon the visiting Red Men will be entertained by the committee at an oyster roast on the Sound. To-morrow the party will go down the river on the steamer Wilmington for a trip to Southport, Fort Caswell and other points of interest down the river. All Red Men of the city, their families and friends will be welcomed on this trip. By special permission of the War Department the visitors will be granted the rare privilege of inspecting the mammoth fortifications at the fort and the day will be one of great pleasure for all who attend.

It is much regretted that Great Sachem B. W. Taylor, of Washington, N. C., cannot be here for the exercises, having been detained on account of illness in his family, but all the other Great Chiefs will be certain to come. Great Senior Sagamore E. A. Ebert, of Winston-Salem, arrived last night on the belated A. Y. train. He is one of the most popular Great Council officers and received a cordial welcome from the Red Men of the city.

PRESS AGENT'S STORY.

Mr. Topperwein, One of World's Champions Coming on Saturday.

Regarding Mr. A. Topperwein, the champion rifle shot who is one of the team of world's champions who have been engaged by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company to give an exhibition of shooting on the grounds of the Wilmington Gun Club on Saturday Oct. 27th at 1 P. M., there is a good story going around that is a credit to their press agent. The story goes that while the Winchester team of experts were giving an exhibition before an audience of several hundred people, on the gun club grounds at a certain town, the attention of the crowd was called to the antics of a large hawk that had just captured a snake and was having considerable difficulty owing to the snakes activity. The hawk was making for a large dead tree and its course took it towards the shooters. When about directly overhead, Mr. Topperwein reached for his automatic rifle and shot off the toes of the hawk, one by one, until it dropped the snake, then with one well directed shot, killed the hawk and with the balance of the loads in the gun shot the head off the snake before it reached the ground amid the deafening applause of the spectators.

Holds fire 36 hours or longer. The combustation is perfect—the heat does not go up the chimney. Burns every particle of the coal; does not make clinkers and leaves very little ash. Other stoves look much like the Wilson, but—that's all. None of them work like the Wilson and none are so good.

ALMOST LYNCHING IN PENNSYLVANIA

Brute Tried to Cremate His Wife and She is In Hospital in Critical Condition—Official Begged Mob.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—John Doran arrested at Wilkinsburg, a suburb, yesterday, charged with attempting to cremate his wife, narrowly escaped lynching today at the hands of an enraged mob of neighbors. As Doran was being removed from the lockup to the office of Justice of the Peace J. J. Walker for a hearing, a crowd of more than 100 people gathered about the office and attempted to take the prisoner. Chief of Police James R. Doran, who is no relative, addressed the crowd and besought them to allow the man to have a fair trial, and informing them that the case against the man was complete. He deprecated lynch law and as result of his pleadings the man was allowed to be taken to Judge Walker's office where he was given a hearing and held for court, being committed to jail without bail. Mrs. Doran is at the Columbia hospital in a critical conditon.

In holding Doran for court the justice said:

"If I could have my way with such a creature as you I would erect a pillory for you in front of my office and would give you 200 lashes with the most effective horsewhip I could obtain."

SOUTHERN DISCRIMINATED.

Investigation by Inter-State Commerce Commission in Kentucky Coal

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 23.—The investigation by the Inter-State Commerce Commission into the relations of the Southern Railway Company with the coal industry was directed to-day toward an effort to prove that the relations of the Manring Coal Exchange with the Southern Railway Company are such as to cause liscrimination in favor of the exchange in the distribution of cars in the Middlesboro, Ky., coal fields. Nine operators testified to-day. Some of them testified that while members of the Manring Exchange they were very well supplied with cars, but that when they severed connection with the Manring interests they suffered a car shortage. Tabulated statements of the relative output of mines while members of the exchange and while out of it were offered in evidence.

The Southern Railway Company's line of defense seemed to be that the cars supplied the Manring mines were for company coal and that if car shortage existed the railway held that it could legally protect its own coal supply before furnishing cars for commercial coal.

WM. J. BRYAN IN INDIANA.

Nebraskan Replies to Senator Beveridge in Latter's Own State.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Indianapolis, Oct. 23.—The second day's tour of William Jennings Bryan through Indiana closed here tonight with a mass meeting at the baseball park.

Today's trip was through Central Indiana, the Bryan party occupying a special electric car.

At Wabash Mr. Bryan said:

"Senator Beveridge has been quoted as saying in Washington not long ago that what we need in this country is a moral regeneration in both public and private life, and I believe that Senator Beveridge is right. The investigations that have taken place in the last two years show a moral degradation in both business and political life. All over the country there has been an attempt to purify politics. There has been a fight against graft and crookedness in office and investigations have shown that in the great business communites there has been constant immorality under the guise of modern business methods we find that these men have not only been plundering the public at large but swindling their closest associates in their own enterprises. There has been a revival of virtue and I believe it means a great deal to this country for it is the indication of men following the dictates of their consciences and conscience after all is the most potent forces that man knows on earth."

Mr. Bryan said that Philadelphia, which he called "the most corrupt city in the country," had been redeemed by the people, and though it did not have a reform mayor it had reformed.

BIG PIER AT JAMESTOWN.

Only Bid for Construction Exceeds Government Appropriation.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., October 23.—No announcement was made at the offices of the Exposition Company today as to what course would now be pursued in the construction of the immense government piers, since the only bid which was made was rejected on account of its being in excess of the appropriation.

Scoffield & Co., of Philadelphia, were the only bidders when the United States engineers opened the bids at Washington yesterday. They placed the cost at $525,000, which is $125,000 more than the government had allowed for its construction.

It is believed that the board of design will immediately be instructed to furnish additional plans which will cut the cost down within the amount appropriated, which was $400,000.

It was stated that this would not delay the construction of the pier very long.

WOMAN SPURNS GOV. HOCH.

Wife of Former Senator Burton Refuses to Shake Hands.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
(Washington Post.)

Topeka, Kans., Oct 21.—Mrs. J. R. Burton, wife of former United States Senator Burton, while in the dining-car of a Union Pacific train this afternoon, accompanying her husband to the jail at Ironton, Mo., where he is to serve a term of six months, refused to shake hands with Gov. Hoch.

The embarrassing scene was witnessed by a dozen of the passengers, who were eating lunch when Mr. and Mrs. wurton and their daughter entered the car. Mr. Burton was in advance of his wife and daughter when they entered. Gov. Hoch and another politician were occupying chairs at one of the small tables. Burton and the Governor shook hands. Mrs. Burton followed, and the Governor arose from his chair and offered his hand.

"No, Mr. Hoch," said Mrs. Burton, removing her hand from the proximity of the Governor's.

"No, I will not shake hands with you. You were not our friend when you could have helped us, and I will not shake hands with you now."

The Governor very gracefully accepted the refusal of Mrs. Burton to manifest her friendship, and, after speaking a word or two of commonplace with the former Senator, sat down and resumed his lunch. Mrs. Burton passed on to her table and sat down with her back to the Governor.

Mrs. Burton's reference to the failure of the Governor to exhibit signs of friendship when they might have been of benefit is believed to concern the refusal of the Governor to make a Senatorial appointment to suit Burton when the latter resigned. In referring to the incident at the station, Mrs. Burton said:

"I still have my nerve. I showed it in that instance. I know who our friends are, and am willing to be friendly with them. I am still reserving the right to choose my own friends."

Burton will surrender to the DistrictCourt at St. Louis Monday prepared to go to jail. During his term Mrs. Burton will live in Ironton.

Pelted With Epithets.

Sir Wilfrid Lawson, the most famous temperance advocate in England, was the target of the political wits. During his last campaign for parliament Sir Wilfrid was greeted as a "peregrinating pump handle," "an old cracked teapot," "a confiscatory molly-coddle," "a washed out water party," "a pop bottle pump orator," "the apostle of slops," "a maudlin mountebank" and "a buffoon." The last epithet was so often hurled at Sir Wilfrid that he remarked it reminded him of "Selah" in the Psalms. His hatred of war and rum led to an epigram which has frequently been repeated. "The country," he said, "is governed by two heathen deities—Bacchus and Mars, or, in other words, by the god of bottles and the god of battles."

Painting and Drawing.

Sir Frederick Leighton once supplemented words of advice and encouragement to a struggling young artist by handing him an envelope containing a check for $250, with the remark, "One day, my friend, I do not doubt that you will be able to draw even better than this." This reminds one of the anecdote told of the visit of old Joseph Gillott, the pen man, to Turner. "I have come to swap some of my pictures for yours," he said. "What do you mean?" exclaimed Turner. "You don't paint!" "No, I don't, but I draw," said Gillott, unfolding a roll of Bank of England notes, "and here are some of my pictures."

Mutual Satisfaction.

"What's this I hear about the plumber and the paper hanger in the next block? Have they been trading houses?"

"Not exactly. They did a lot of work for each other and each had to take the other's house for his pay."—Chicago Tribune.

Willing to Compromise.

A young woman called at a house where a maid was wanted. She asked the mistress of the house if they had any children, to which she replied that they had five. "Then I can't work for you," said the girl. "Oh, do stay," said the woman. "We will kill the children!"

If a man has his board fence painted white it immediately suggests to the boy a piece of charcoal; if black, a piece of chalk.

Chess and Intellect.

It is doubtful whether a great chess player is often, we are sure he is not of necessity, to be regarded as a man of powerful intellect. It has never been shown that the greatest masters of the game were men with big brains for anything but chess.—London Saturday Review.

Her Plea For Delay.

"Will you be my wife, Jane?"

"Will you ask me again, John?"

"Why?"

"Because I'd like to look round a little before I give you the direct answer."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

This arch supporter is the best remedy for "flat foot" or weak instep, an ailment that is quite prevalent to-day. MAKING RUSH FOR GOLD FIELDS

Run to New Eldorado to Be Made At Noon Next Monday—Goldfield Press Charges Against Government Surveyors.

Goldfield, Nev., Oct. 21.—Four thousand prospectors and mining men are camped on the borders of the Walker River Indian reservation, waiting the hour of noon Monday, October 29, set by the proclamation of the President for the formal opening of the reservation. This number will be augmented by other thousands, for the fame of the Walker Indian reservation as a rich mineral-bearing region has spread far and wide.

Every mining man who has passed through the reservation had been made aware of the riches of the region from samples of free gold ore the Indians have in their possession, and this land has for years been coveted by the whites as mining territory. Several mining camps have sprung up along the border of the reservation.

Within the last few months the Government negotiated a treaty with the Indians for the sale of their lands, so that the reservation might be thrown open. Scores of government surveyors and mining experts were put upon the land to survey it and segregate the mineral and agricultural territory.

The people of Nevada have long believed many of these so-called government agents were acting more in behalf of rich mining syndicates than the government. It is well known that hundreds of prospectors bearing permits and others deputized as sheriffs have been in the reservation for months, ostensibly on government business, but in reality prospecting and fixing the location of valuable mineral deposits in anticipation of the opening.

The Goldfield News, in a leading editorial, charges conspiracy of government officials in securing in advance the best of the mineral lands of the reservation for themselves and their friends. It says that hundreds of miners have left Goldfield for Walker. They go in parties and are heavily armed. It is expected there will be bloodshed.

TERM IN PRISON FOR MOONSHINER

Member of Republican Executive Committee—Rural Mail Carrier Also Gets Sentence—Violator Promised Immunity.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 23.—There were several interesting cases tried on the criminal docket of the Federal Court at Statesville last week. One of the parties sent to the penitentiary was Sam Lisk, a rural mail carrier, convicted of embezzling $16 given him by a lady to get a money order. He had borne a good reputation. Every effort was made to save him because he was ignorant, but an example was made of him and he serves his time. He was the tallest man in the county, being six feet nine and three-quarters inches high.

Another important conviction and sentence to the penitentiary was that of Thomas L. Williams, a prominent and influential member of the Republican County Executive Committee. After a warm trial on a charge of illicit distilling, being ably defended by Judge Furches and Ex-Congressman Linney, and as ably prosecuted by District Attorney Holton and Assistant District Attorney Coble, Williams was convicted. An equally strong effort was made to save him from the penitentiary, but Judge Boyd would not relent. The evidence showed that Williams had been running the "block" in North Iredell, near the Alexander line, nearly as badly as had those distilleries in other parts of the Eighth district two years ago, which the recent revenue officer trials have exposed. Judge Boyd at the April term of court in Iredell publicly announced that illicit distilling had to stop, and that in future he would send all convicted parties to the penitentiary. He made this proclamation at all the courts time and again. In spite of this, the evidence showed that Williams kept right on running his still, and his prayer for clemency did not avail.

There was another incident that has more than ordinary interest just now. One defendant, against whom a judgment nisi had been obtained for failing to appear at a previous term of the court to stand trial on an indictment for blockading, came into court and filed affidavits, asking that the judgment of default be set aside. After hearing the affidavits Judge Boyd set aside the judgment and the defendant was allowed to give bond for his appearance for trial at next term. The defendant's affidavit contained the statement that he had employed Congressman Blackburn and paid him $100 and the receipt from Blackburn for this amount was exhibited. The defendant further affirmed that Blackburn told him that for the $100 he would settle the case, and afterwards assured him that it was all off and he would not have to attend court. Upon this showing and the defendant giving a good bond, the judgment of default for his non-appearance was vacated.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Oct. 23.—The cotton market today was nervous and irregular within a narrow range, the close being steady at a decline of 2 points to an advance of 4 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of one point to an advance of one point which was just about as due on the cables. The weather map was better than expected with no precipitation of consequence and an absence of the predicted freezing temperatures in the southwest. But the lines on the map pointed to lower temperatures tonight or tomorrow and this fact held sellers in check. After working up to a net advance of about 3 to 4 points on bull support and covering, however, the market eased off in keeping with larger receipts, and a rather more favorable western belt forecast, and sold 4 to 8 points net lower. At this level local buying encouraged by low private estimates of the crop came to the support of prices and the market during the latter trading was very irregular within a range of 5 or 6 points. Southern spot markets were 1-8c lower to 1-8c higher and receipts for the first time this season reached over 100,000 bales.

Receipts at the ports 111,552 bales against 88,050 last week and 62,962 last year. For the week 420,000 against 372,277 last week and 293,863 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 19,752 against 10,621 last year and at Houston 39,555 against 27,463 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points decline. Middling uplands, 11.15; middling gulf, 11.40. Sales none.

High Point special, Oct. 22: To be married to a man whom she supposed to be her lawful husband and to have wife No. 1, come upon the scene after an absence of several years, is experience of wife No. 2 of a man who works near this place, but who lives in Greensboro. Several years ago the wife of the man in question left his bed and board and went North, and he claims had never heard of her until she put in her appearance a day or so ago. That he believed her dead and had received word to that effect. In the meantime he married a woman living in this neighborhood, but has never obtained a divorce, making him a bigamist. It is not known whether wife No. 1 (his lawful wife) will push the case or not, and in the meantime speculation is ripe as to what wife No. 2 will do. This unfortunate man has consulted legal advice, but it is learned that little encouragement was given him, owing to the fact that no positive evidence is in hand to show that he believed his first wife was dead. He is a hard working man, is generally liked by his friends, and has had many reverses, it is learned, in life.

LEADER MURPHY'S FALSE ALARM

Grand Jury in New York Dismissed Against the Hearst Organization,

WAS ONLY CAMPAIGN GOSSIP

Charge That Independence League Tried to Get Tammany Money Fell Through—Judge Parker for Independent League Ticket.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 23.—At the conclusion of an investigation by the grand jury of charges made by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, that Tammany Hall candidates had been "held up for cash considerations," by the managers of the Independence League, it was announced today that the charges had fallen through completely. The official announcement to this effect declared that the charges were "merely campaign gossip and the grand jury will not dignify the proceedings by making a presentment as the result of its inquiry."

The grand jury announced that in the opinion there was nothing wrong in an offer by Congresman Goulden to pay the expenses incurred in getting signatures to the Independence League petition in his behalf. William Astor Chanler who had been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury was not called upon to testify.

The executive committee of Tammany Hall decided at a meeting today to support the whole Democratic ticket, State and local. Charles F. Murphy, the leader of Tammany Hall delivered a speech to the members in which he said that he expected all of them to do their utmost so that on election day the results when compared with the best vote from previous years would preclude any possibility of any charge of treachery or knifing.

"The ticket must be supported," said Mr. Murphy. "to the full, in every district. We are almost on the eve of election day and the time remaining should be devoted to using the best energies that each of you leaders can command. Now is the time to put your shoulder to the wheel and aid in rolling up the biggest Democratic vote in the history of the organization. The ticket I am confident, will win, and the victory will be all the greater with Tammany working in every district."

Chairman William J. Connors, of the Democratic State committee, appointed an executive committee to push the State campaign, and Charles F. Murphy, the head of Tammany Hall, called upon the Tammany leaders to support the party nominees with loyalty and energy.

Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for Governor, left Kingston for a half dozen speeches in the counties of Orange, Delaware and Chemung and closed the day's work with an evening meeting at Elmira.

William Randolph Hearst spent the day in town, addressing three city meetings tonight.

The judiciary nominators held a meeting at Carnegie Hall tonight in the interests of an independent judiciary. Among the speakers were Joseph H. Choate, late ambassador to the court of St. James; former Judge Alton B. Parker, and former Secretary of the Navy, Benjamin F. Tracy.

OPPRESSION IN GRAIN TRADE.

Interstate Commerce Commission Stirs Up Rank Discrimination.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Kansas City, Mo., October 23.—Evidence of favoritism to the manager of the Kansas City Elevators of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway in reduced grain rates; the existence of a rule in the Kansas City Board of Trade threatening its members with suspension for dealing with "irregular" grain men; a combination of members of that organization to fix prices, and threats by grain dealers' associations to boycott boards of trade members who might buy from farmers and others against whom the associations had issued orders, were some of the points brought here today, at a hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

E. W. Shields, elevator agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway and active manager of the Simonds-Shields Grain Company, of Kansas City, who was instructed by the Commissioners yesterday to return here from St. Louis, proved an important witness.

Mr. Shields said he was in Chicago last Fall when he was called upon to advise about a special export rate on corn. He helped make a rate, effective several days later, then came home and bought corn right and left. He shipped three and a half million bushels of corn under the special rate. He had bought more than a million bushels before other dealers learned that the reduced rate would be made.

THE CLANSMAN IS SUPPRESSED

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, Granted Appeal of Negroes Opposing Drama.

PLAY IS PEACE DISTURBER

George H. White, Negro Lawyer and Former Congressman from North Carolina, Chief Spokesman Before Mayor—Proceedings.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Mayor Weaver today issued an order suppressing the further production here of the drama "The Clansman," which began last night what was to have been a week's engagement at the Walnut Street theatre. The mayor's action was prompted by the demonstration last night at the theatre by several thousand colored citizens.

A delegation of representative colored men consisting of clergymen, doctors, lawyers and business men called upon the mayor today and protested against the continuance of the play because of its alleged tendency to arouse racial prejudice and to incite to riot. The chief spokesman for the delegation was former Congressman George H. White, of North Carolina, who now resides here.

Counsel for the management of the theatrical production claimed that there was redress through the courts for those opposed to the play and charged that the colored people and not the players were responsible for last night's riotous demonstration.

After hearing both sides, Mayor Weaver took counsel with the city solicitor and later decided that "The Clansman" was calculated to produce disorder and endanger lives. In consequence of this he ordered the withdrawal of the play.

The management of the play will tomorrow go into court and apply for an injunction restrain the mayor from interferring with the production.

THANKSGIVING DAY IS NOV. 29th.

President Roosevelt Issued Proclamation Calling for Its Observance.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, October 23.—Phe President to-day issued a proclamation making Thursday, November 29, as a day of thanksgiving. The text of the proclamation is as follows:

"The time of year has come when, in accordance with the wise custom of our forefathers, it becomes my duty to set aside a special day of thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty because of the blessings we have received, and of prayer that these blessings may be continued. Yet another year of widespread well-being has past. Never before in our history or in the history of any other nation has a people enjoyed more abounding material prosperity than is ours; a prosperity so great that it should arouse in us no spirit of reckless pride, and least of all, a spirit of heedless disregard of our responsibilities, but rather a sober sense of our many blessings, and a resolute purpose, under providence, not to forfeit them by any certain action of our own.

"Material well being, indispensable tho it is, can never be anything but the foundation of true national greatness and happiness. If we build nothing upon this foundation, then our national life will be as meaningless and empty as a house where only the foundation has been laid. Upon our material well being must be built a superstructure of individual and national life lived in accordance with the laws of the highest morality, or else our prosperity itself will in the long run turn out a curse instead of a blessing. We should be both reverently thankful for what we have received, and earnestly bent upon turning it into a means of grace and not of destruction.

"Accordingly, I hereby set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, next, as a day of Thanksgiving and supplication, on which the people shall meet in their homes or their churches, devoutly acknowledge all that has been given them, and to pray that they may in additiona receive the power to use to use these gifts aright.

"In witness thereof I have heunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixt.

"Done at the City of Washington this 22nd day of October, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty First.

(Seal) "Theodore Roosevelt,

By the President:

"Elihu Root, Secretary of State."

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin yesterday says: Joe Gans, the colored light-weight champion of the world, and who also holds the title of welter-weight champion of the world, has decided that one pugulist title is enough for him. Hereafter he will not lay claim to the welter-weight championship but will let the men in the 142 poupnd class contest for the welter-weight title.

ENGLISH WOMEN WERE OBSTREPEROUS

One Hundred Invaded Parliament and Hotly Demanded Right to Vote.

WAS EJECTED BY THE POLICE

Women Jumped Into Chairs and Harrangued Members of Parliament. Struggled Desperately With the Officers.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

London, Oct. 23,—Unusual excitement in connection with the re-opening of Parliament today was caused by the presence of about one hundred women suffragists, many of whom, despite the efforts of the police managed to find their way into the outer lobby of the House of Commons with the intention of button-holing the members in support of their movement. A number of the suffragists mounted vacant chairs in the lobby and began to harangue the few members of Parliament present in that part of the house. The police after being reinforced, made a strategic advance against the invaders, taking the women singly and gradually ejected them, one by one. The most militant of the women struggled so desperately that two officers were required to remove them. Their hysterical shouting and screaming brought crowds of the members from the house and unwonted scene created temporary excitement such as has seldom been witnessed in or about the house. During the height of the tumult a small band of the staunchest suffragists determined to attempt to break into the house itself, and as though by concerted action this band suddenly charged towards the entrance of the inner lobby. Some of the women tried to climb over the barrier and others attempted to crawl under it. For several minutes the utmost disorder prevailed and the police had all they could do to eject the stern, determined women without using the more vigorous means which would have been employed in the case of men.

The women resolutely refused to leave the house without being ejected by force, clung tenaciously to the stalwart policemen, the railings or other means of support, and offered strenuous resistance to expulsion, while shouts of "We will have votes!" and "You cowardly men dare not give us justice!" resounded through the halls. Finally the police were forced to carry out several of the women bodily and the struggling and shouting suffragists were all ultimately deposited in the Palace yard. The police arrested several of the women and marched them off to the nearest police station. The reassembling of Parliament drew large crowds despite the fact that the session was devoid of importance or the appearance of royalty. This was merely a resumption of the session. Ambassador Reid, accompanied by Craig Wadsworth, second secretary of the American embassy, occupied a seat in the diplomatic gallery of the House of Commons. Former Premier Balfour was unexpectedly present and received a hearty greeting from the opposition members.

Joseph Chamberlain's absence was noticeable. He is still nursing his attack of, gout.

KILLED FOR HER DIAMONDS.

Former Theatrical Agent Confesses to Murder of Actress.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Edward E. Nichols, a theatrical agent, who was taken into custody by the police during their investigation of the death of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, the actress, who was found dead in her room at the Palace Hotel, confessed late today to the murder of Mrs. Leslie and of the stealing of diamonds valued at $1,500 from her.

Two pawn brokers informed the police today that Nichols had been to them with diamonds said to have been the property of Mrs. Leslie, before her death, and which were not found until it was learned that they were in the possession of Nichols. The prisoner refused to say a word regarding his possession of the diamonds when confronted by the pawn brokers. He was taken to the police station where he made a confession.

DOORS CLOSED TO FOREIGNERS.

No More Will Be Admitted to Naval Academy.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 23.—At the request of the Japanese embassy at Washington, Midshipman Asahi Kitigaki, of the Naval Academy, has submitted his resignation, which will be accepted, it is understood. Kitigaki is a son of Baron Kitigaki of the imperial privy council. He entered the American Naval Academy in September, 1904.

Inquiry at the Navy Department brought out the statement that the sole reason for the resignation of Japanese Midshipman Kitigaki from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, was a deficiency in studies. As an act was passed at the last session of Congress prohibiting the further entry of foreigners at the Academy, there can, of course, be no other Japanese cadet admitted in the place of Kitigaki.

LONE SURVIVOR RESCUED AT SEA

Marvelous Escape of Victim of Terrible Hurricane on Florida Coast.

WAS DRIFTING ALL ALONE

Russell was adrift in a stormy sea Boat Were Drowned—Man Was So Weak He Was All But Dead.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, October 2.—The solitary survivor of 33 men who went adrift on the barge, or houseboat, Halfy, from lower Matacombi Key, on the coast of Florida, during the terrific gale of October 18, was brought into port to-day by the steamer El Paso. He is John Russell, of Salem, Florida, and he declared that he saw eight of the 32 others drowned and believes that all of them went down when the barge foundered.

Russell was adrift in a storm sea for nearly two days and one night, clinging to bits of the barge, which he gathered together to form a raft when the El Paso, bound for Galveston to this city was off Aligator Light on the Florida coast last Friday afternoon, the lookout sighted Russel still hanging to the raft almost too exhausted to call for help. He was quickly taken on board and received the best of care.

Russell said that the was engaged in railroad building at lower Maticombi and was attached to the dredge Oyma when the gale swept down upon them. Thirty-three of the men who were employed with him took refuge on board the Halfy but the frail craft hastily broke away from her moorings and in the height of the gale was smashed to pieces.

Eight of the men were rendered unconscious from injuries sustained by the smashing of the barge or were beaten insensible by the driftwood among which they were thrown after the barge went down. He saw other members of the party who had survived the sinking of the barge, clinging to a small skiff. He believes that they were lost.

The El Paso passed through large quantities of wreckage near where he was found.

CHANGE IN THE CABINET.

Cortelyou, Boneparte and Metcalf Go Up—Two New Men.

Washington, October 23.—The following statement regarding prospective changes in President Roosevelt's cabinet was made public to-night:

"On the retirement of Secretary Shaw and Attorney General Moody, from the cabinet, the following changes will be made:

"Secretary of the Treasury—Hon. Geo. B. Cortelyou.

"Postmaster General—Hon. Geo. Von L. Meyer.

"Attorney General—Hon. Charles J. Boneparte.

"Secretary of the Navy—Hon. Victor H. Metcalf.

"Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Hon. Oscar S. Straus."

The general understanding for some time has been that Attorney General Moody will retire on the first of the coming January and that Secretary Shaw will follow him on the 4th of March. On the first of the year, therefor, Mr. Bonaparte, who is now Secretary of the Navy, will succeed Mr. Moody as Attorney General and he will in turn be succeeded by Mr. Metcalf, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, the latter's place being filled by Mr. Straus. Mr. Cortelyou, now Postmaster General, will take Secretary Shaw's place on the 4th of March, at which time Mr. Meyer is to become Postmaster General.

Mr. Meyer, who will become Postmaster General, is Ambassador to Russia to which place he was appointed on March 6, 1905, having been promoted to that office following his service as the Ambassador to Italy from 1900 to 1905. He is a native of Massachusetts and has been well known as a business man.

The appointment of Mr. Straus, caused considerable surprise as it will be the first case where a citizen of the Hebrew faith has been made a member of the President's cabinet. He was born December 3rd, 1850, and is well known as a merchant, diplomat and author. He represented the United States as Minister to Turkey on two different occasions and was appointed by President Roosevelt to fill the vacancy caused by the death of ex-President Harrisson as a member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague.

At Richmond yesterday President Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, presided over the annual meeting of stockholders. The old board of directors was re-elected, and the board was authorized to complete the construction of the Potts Creek branch, a distance of twenty-five miles, for which $1,000,000 4 per cent first mortgage gold bonds will be issued. The directors will meet next week—probably Tuesday or Wendesday—in New York, to declare the annual dividend.
